Commission meeting to review plans for trailer park

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
In a special meeting Thursday, the Hancock County Planning Commission will discuss variance requests for a proposed trailer park subdivision on Blue Meadow Road.

The commission delayed granting the requests for variances on minimum lot widths and area for several lots in the planned subdivision at their regular meeting Thursday, until the county engineer could review the plans.

"Since this development is not a typical subdivision where houses will be built, but instead one where mobile homes are to be placed, we feel these waivers are justified," said Project Engineer Scott Burd of Broadway Engineers of Picayune.

The plan presented Thursday included 46 lots in Phase I of the Blue Meadow Ridge Subdivision. The total project will include 119 lots and a common recreation area.

Subdivision developer J. Alvin Triche Jr. said he believes the environment created will offer a secure and affordable location for young families to begin accumulating equity as well as for older families to live within their retirement budget.

Triche also said he is working with Bay St. Louis city officials to get city utility services extended to the subdivision which is just 400 feet from the city limits.

In order to prevent a month-long delay for the developers, the commission voted to hold a special meeting this week to consider the variances.

The meeting will begin at 4 p.m. Thursday on the second floor of the Hancock County Courthouse.

Also at Thursday's meeting, the commission approved a plan from the Percell Company for Phase I of Golf Terraces Estates, a nine-lot subdivision on Diamondhead Drive West.

In other business, a report on building permits issued in October was presented.

According to Building Official Don Murray, there were 31 building permits issued for $1,072 in the past month.

Permits issued include seven houses, seven trailers, one renovation and five sheds, eight power poles and eight houses outside the flood zone area.

The number of permits is up from October 1985, when 26 permits were issued for $1,034.

PINE HILLS GOING DOWN—Demolition of the 60-year-old Pine Hills Hotel which overlooks the Bay of St. Louis began Wednesday by the Kimmings Industrial Service Corp. of Paredena, Texas. Hotel owners, the Du Pont Company, announced plans to demolish the building earlier this year, but the plans were delayed when asbestos was discovered in the building. Demolition by the use of a wrecking ball and other traditional demolition tools is expected to take several weeks. (Staff photo by Brenda Heathcock)

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Bay Senior High's Tigers have accepted an invitation to play in the Wendell Ladner Memorial Bowl on Saturday, Nov. 15.

Bay High compiled an 8-1 record for the season, losing only the season's opener by two points to Stone County.

An elated Tiger Head Mentor Cleveland Williams said Saturday, "I feel it is an honor for the Tigers, who have really played hard this season, our players really gave it all in every game."

The bowl game is dedicated to the late Wendell Ladner, star basketball player for Hancock North Central, Mississippi Southern College, New Orleans Buccaneers, Memphis Pros, Kentucky Colonels and New York Nets.

Williams mentioned that the Tigers had previously played in the post season bowl when Snuffy Smith

Franklin J. Cuevas publishes book on ancestors, island

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Franklin J. Cuevas, a native of Sellers Community in Hancock County and resident of Gulfport has authored a book titled "Life History of Juan De Cuevas" and History of Cat Island and Life of Christian Ladner, father-in-law of Juan De Cuevas.

The publication printed and published by Dixie Press was released on Thursday.

Franklin Cuevas spent some five years gathering information for the publications.

The book on the life of Juan De Cuevas, hero of the War of 1812, is dedicated to his descendants and heirs.

Juan De Cuevas arrived at Cat Island at the age of 20 from Andalucia, Spain in 1782.

He married Helen Ladner (Ladner), daughter of Christian Ladner, and raised 11 children on Cat Island.

Franklin Cuevas said the city of Pass Christian was named in the honor of Christian Ladner.

Franklin Cuevas is a fifth generation member of the Juan De Cuevas family.

He and his wife are the parents of one daughter, Judith Ann McFerren of Glen Ellen, Ill.

The author states that much of the history of Cat Island, Juan De Cuevas, and Christian Ladner was gathered from individuals and old court records.

Many of the records were destroyed when the Hancock County and Jackson County Courthouses burned in the mid-1800's.

Franklin Cuevas added, "I have even contacted the Council Generals of Spain, Mexico, and Portugal on the distribution of this publication, since Juan De Cuevas had so many ancestors in those countries."

"It has been my life's ambition to publish this book, and I am hoping to have a second printing very soon," the author commented.

SINNING AGAINST THE HOLY SPIRIT (NO. 1)

In answer to the scribes, Jesus said, "Verily I say unto you, all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men and blasphemies where withsoever they shall blaspheme; but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation; Because they said, he hath an unclean spirit." (Mark 3:28-30)

The New Testament was written under the guiding influence of the Holy Spirit. The words of the New Testament, therefore, are the words of the spirit. We learn from this in the words of Paul, "This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom, but in words taught us by the spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. (1 Cor. 2:13 NIV)

There has always been and always will be those who contradict the truth. Paul said, "The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons." (1 Tim. 4:1)

When we violate the words of the Spirit, we sin against the Spirit. In a number of ways we may sin against the Holy Spirit.

We may sin against the Holy Spirit by grieving him. Paul taught, "Let no corrupt communications proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, wherein by ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and all evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." (Eph. 4:29-32)

The Holy Spirit is a person. When we yield to his influence, we please him. Peter said, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." (1 Pet. 1:22-23)

The Spirit through the word leads us to believe in Jesus as God's Son, repent of our sins, confess our faith in Jesus Christ before men, and be baptized into Christ for the remission of sins.

When we violate the words of the Spirit, we sin against the Spirit. John wrote, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

In a number of ways we may sin against the Holy Spirit.

After one-week delay

Bay school board to choose architect

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District Board is expected to select an architect Monday for a proposed long-range building program.

The board had been expected to select the architect last week but agreed to delay the matter because one member was absent.

In addition, Board President Betty Diboll said the delay would give board members time to study printed material supplied by the three architectural firms under consideration for the job.

Representatives of those three firms, Fred Wagner of Bay St. Louis and Compton and Bolton and Fountain and Lamas, both of Gulfport, addressed the board last week.

Williams continued, "This week our coaching staff will be working with our defensive unit, as we know St. John has an explosive offensive unit."

The Tigers should field a sound team Saturday in the Wendell Ladner Bowl, as Williams reported all players would be ready to play with only a few suffering from bruises.

During the 1986 season, Bay High really had good fan support, even at the away-from-home games, and Coach Williams is hoping for a big Tiger following at the bowl game Saturday.

Barbara Salloum to appear on ABC's All My Children

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Gulf Coast television personality, Barbara Salloum will briefly appear on the ABC soap opera All My Children Tuesday.

Salloum, hostess for WLOX-TV13's Good Morning South Mississippi, says getting to visit with the soap stars behind the scenes was a much as her two lines on camera.

"I spent most of the time in the actors lounge, meeting the stars and getting interviews," she said.

To give area residents insight on how a soap works, Salloum plans to show segments of behind the scenes Monday and Tuesday on her show of Pine Valley, the fictional city where All My Children is set.

Good Morning South Mississippi airs at 10 a.m. and All My Children begins a 12 noon.

Salloum obtained her spot on All My Children by contacting the director of ABC Daytime television.

ABC frequently allows the guest appearances with their affiliates for the promotional value, she said.

"I just feel really lucky to be able to be on All My Children, the number one soap opera," she said.

Salloum says her day in All My Children's New York studio lasted from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and was really a fun day.

"It was interesting to see the soap stars out of their environment," she said.

"I'm lights, camera and action

wherever you are," she said. "You know what you are supposed to do and you just go and do it," Salloum added.

However, for interviews with several of the show's stars Salloum talked about their lives off the show.

"In the interview with Peter Bergman (Dr. Cliff Warner) we talked about the recent birth of his son and his outside acting," she said.

Salloum also interviewed Jean LeClerc (Jeremy Hunter), Michael Tylo (Matt Connely) and Kate Collins (Natalie Hunter).

"The interviews came between rehearsals, makeup, wardrobe and lunch," she said.

"I had to walk out on my own interview with Jean LeClerc to go downstairs for rehearsals," she added.

Salloum said being on camera in the New York studio was not that much different than here.

"It's lights, camera and action

wherever you are," she said. "You know what you are supposed to do and you just go and do it," Salloum added.

She said the experience was basically what she expected but that she had seen how hard a job it is being a soap star.

"The actors spend 12 hours on the set and then have to take scripts home to study for the next day," Salloum said.

While their popularity allows them to do other things, including stage-acting and movie rolls, it also takes away their privacy as fans wait outside the studio for the stars, she continued.

Salloum said she had no further aspirations for the soap opera set.

"I did what I had set out to do and that's it," she said.

Salloum will also appear on the Channel 13 Live at 5 newscast Monday, where she will discuss her soap opera appearance.

On Tuesday, veterans across America will be saluted with special services.

In Hancock County, a special person will be honored at Veterans Day ceremonies in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. Carl T. Smith, a World War I veteran, will celebrate his 100th birthday on Nov. 26, and he will be honored on Veterans Day.

Mr. Smith is a person whom I have known since I was in grammar school, and he and his late wife resided in Bay St. Louis since 1930.

Until a few years ago, Mr. Carl could be seen riding his tricycle about town. He worked until he was 91 years old, and drove his auto until a recent surgery.

We are hoping Mr. Carl will be able to be back in Bay St. Louis for some of the many festivities planned for his 100th birthday celebration.

The Veterans Day parade in Bay St. Louis will begin at 10 a.m. at Bay Junior High school, and a special address will follow at the Bay St. Louis City Hall.

American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boy and Girl Scouts, marching groups, bands, students, and auxiliary members are all urged to participate in the parade which will start forming on Carroll Avenue at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday.

It is hoped there will be a large turnout for the Hancock County Veterans Day celebrations.

Veterans Day, a time to remember

On Veterans Day, November 11, this nation pauses to recognize the services performed by a very special group of men and women.

Recent events have re-emphasized just what it means to be a veteran... and to have served our nation and our flag with pride and honor.

The veterans of today are living examples of the type of service which brought our nation into being and preserved it to this day. For more than 200 years, whenever the forces of tyranny and subjugation threatened, gallant citizens have answered our nation's call. In prosperous times and in desperate days, there always have been those in the United States to risk all they had for what we all hold dear.

They answered the call. They served with honor. They kept faith with us. On this day set aside for their recognition, we have the chance to reaffirm our dedication to the principles they have helped to preserve.

Their service has been in keeping with the best traditions established in this nation more than 200 years ago, when the first generation of this country's veterans set down the tradition of the citizen soldier's defending unto death the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy.

America's veterans have fought for that still-elusive objective — the end of all wars. They fought against the recklessness of the few who would try to subject their brand of tyranny on the multitudes. Their sacrifices have not been merely to defend our nation's shores, but to champion the cause of freedom and individual dignity wherever it was threatened.

Today, there are men and women serving in the uniform of our country, stationed in outposts around the world, working to help assure that their sons and daughters may enjoy a world of

Brad Dye to appeal ruling on lieutenant governor's power

Lieutenant Governor Brad Dye said that he was surprised at the ruling of Jackson Judge L. Breland Hiburn in the suit brought against the office of lieutenant governor by two Gulf Coast Senators and said that the ruling will take power away from the people of the state if it is allowed to stand.

Senators Gene Taylor of Bay St. Louis and Steve Hale of Moss Point filed a suit in Hinds County Circuit Court charging that certain rules adopted by the Senate gave the lieutenant governor legislative powers which violate the separation of powers doctrine because the lieutenant governor serves in the executive branch.

Dye's attorney, Special Assistant Attorney General Betty Morgan Benton, argued at the court hearing that the powers given to the lieutenant governor by the challenged rules are administrative and presiding officer powers, not legislative, and that most of these have been in effect for nearly a century.

A Jackson judge determined that the duties and responsibilities of numerous lieutenant governors since the 1890 Constitution was adopted have been wrongly applied. Dye said he is appalled that one judge can impose his will over the people of the State of Mississippi who elect the Lieutenant Governor and who have been electing Lieutenant Governors throughout the state's history. "I believe that the Supreme Court will reverse the decision of this Jackson Judge," Dye said.

The circuit court ruled that the Lieutenant Governor may continue to supervise the Senate staff, appoint Senate pages, assign seating space to news reporters in the Senate chamber, and serve as chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, but may not appoint Senate committee chairmen, vice chairmen or members, or refer bills to Senate committees.

Dye said that he disagrees with the court's ruling and will file an immediate appeal with the Mississippi Supreme Court.

"The Constitution makes the Lieutenant Governor the president of the Senate and provides that his compensation shall be the same as the speaker of the House of Representatives. At the time the Constitution was written in 1860, it was well understood that the power to preside over a legislative body included the power to appoint committees," Dye said.

He pointed out that the Senate first adopted in 1870 and has readopted in every Legislative Session since a rule authorizing the Lieutenant Governor to appoint committees.

The right to assign bills was placed in the rules as early as 1912, he noted.

"It is gratifying that the circuit court found constitutional the rules granting the Lieutenant Governor certain administrative responsibilities. It is unfortunate that the circuit court has ignored the historic interpretation of our Constitution. This historic interpretation is evidenced by the fact that every session of the Senate since 1862 has deemed the rules to be unconstitutional. Likewise our Attorney General believes the rules are unconstitutional," Dye said.

He added that the ruling takes power away from the people of the state and interferes with the checks and balance system.

"The ruling would take the powers away from a statewide elected official who is responsible to all the people of the state, and if rules are adopted similar to those of other states, it would place the power in the hands of one Senator elected from only one district. This would result in an erosion of the power of the people," the lieutenant governor said.

He also stated that the lawsuit was against the office and not him personally. "This lawsuit involves a legal interpretation of the Senate rules and the Constitution. Neither the Senators who filed the suit nor the court have suggested in any way that I have personally done anything other than exercise the powers granted to me and my predecessors by the Senate rules. I might add that I have carried out my duties properly and fairly, at all times putting foremost the interests of the people of the entire state," Dye said.

Six Senators filed a "Friend of the Court" brief supporting the position of the lieutenant governor. The Senators, who Dye said are from various parts of the state and of various political philosophies and who represent the majority of the Senate, are Senators Hob Bryan of Amory, Bill Canon of Columbus, Walter A. Graham of New Albany, Alan Heflin of Forest, Bob Montgomery of Canton, and F.M. Smith Jr. of Laurel.

Bryan stated, "I hope that the decision is reversed by the Supreme Court. I think the ruling was wrong, first, as a matter of Constitutional law, and, secondly, I believe a statewide elected official should be performing those functions (appointing committees and referring bills)."

Historically, it has been a leveling influence on the statewide elected official because he is responsible to all the people, and historically, the Senate has been more democratic than the House which I believe can be attributed to having a statewide official perform these functions."

Dye said that he and the Attorney General intend to pursue a prompt appeal so that the Mississippi Supreme Court may decide this issue as quickly as possible. "I feel confident that the State Supreme Court will give proper consideration to the historic context and interpretation of the Senate rules and find that the exercise of those by the Lieutenant Governor, a statewide elected official, is proper and constitutional," Dye said.

WHITE HOUSE DRUG HEAD
SUPPORTS STATE'S EFFORTS
I recently met the Mississippian Carlton Turner, who is the top Presidential adviser for drug control. Our meeting was in response to my request to President Reagan for a summit involving all the nation's governors to discuss the problem of drug abuse.

Dr. Turner, who formerly taught at the University of Mississippi, told me that the White House is receptive to suggestions regarding a nationwide effort to combat the drug problem and he said he would be discussing further our proposals with the President.

I have also received replies from a large number of the nation's governors regarding the proposed governors' summit on drugs. They have endorsed the idea, and many have written the President to encourage him to accept our invitation.

While we continue to work on the possibility of setting up the meeting with the President, the Governor's Task Force on Drugs has concluded the last of nine public hearings throughout the State of Mississippi. These hearings were fact-finding efforts designed to identify programs that are working in our state to combat the problems of alcohol and drugs.

With the conclusion of the hearings, the Task Force will review all the testimony we received and make recommendations for establishing the Governor's Alliance Against Drugs, a statewide cross-section of individuals and programs aimed at winning the war on drugs in Mississippi.

During our hearings, we found a number of programs that are working in Mississippi. But we also found a need for sharing this information in areas of the state where such programs do not exist.

We have discovered where we have shortcomings in battling the influx of drugs. For example, we have only one public adolescent care facility in Mississippi with only 10 beds. Obviously, we cannot rehabilitate and retrain our youth with no facilities in which to do so.

This is just one of the findings of the Task Force. In the coming weeks, we will be contacting many of you about serving on the Governor's Alliance. I look forward to working with you on this very serious problem.

HIGHWAYS — A MAJOR ISSUE IN 1987

The question of highways will be a major issue in the 1987 legislative session. There is little question about the importance of highways, or about the value of an adequate transportation system to the state's economic development efforts.

There is also little question about Mississippi's need for an improved highway system.

There is a question as to the funding of the improvements.

Members of the committee of the House of Representatives studying the issue have concluded that a tax increase will be necessary to fund the massive highway construction program which they believe Mississippi needs.

Representative Billy McCoy of Rienzi makes a strong argument when he suggests that an investment in highways could pay significant dividends in terms of industrial expansion, creation of additional jobs, and collection of more taxes.

And Representative John Pennebaker of New Albany, committee chairman, commits himself to a program of construction based on priority needs rather than any other criteria.

Mississippians will want to consider the possible benefits from an investment in a highway construction program.

Waveland Players production of 'Bus Stop' to open Friday

The Waveland Players' production of "Bus Stop," William Inge's romantic comedy set in the playwright's home state of Kansas, will open on Friday at the Civic Center on Coleman Avenue.

Dottie Overall of Bay St. Louis, veteran thespian for the Waveland Players, will mark her adult-play directing debut with this production.

The play, which takes place just west of Kansas City in Grace's Diner, where bus travelers are stranded during a spring blizzard in the mid-1950's, is best known for the character of Cherie.

Cherie is a young woman from the Ozarks who goes to Kansas City seeking fame and fortune as a singer—she calls herself a "chanteuse"—then finds herself abducted by a cowboy determined to take her back to his Montana ranch and marry her. The role was initiated on Broadway by Kim Stanley, but most people remember Marilyn Monroe in the movie version. Susan Stevens of Waveland will reprise the role here.

Stevens, who majored in drama at Loyola University in New Orleans, last appeared on the Waveland stage in "Crimes of the Heart," her community theatre acting credits date back to 1973 and include roles in "The Eldest of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds," "Bye Bye Birdie," "Guys and Dolls," "The Murder Room" and "Deadwood Dick."

Perry Berens of Bay St. Louis, whose prior experience with community theatre has been limited to set construction, will make his acting debut in "Bus Stop" in the role of Cherie's ardent but naive suitor, Bo Decker.

Newcomers shine in Diamondhead play

Travelers on the bus, besides Cherie and Bo, include Dr. Gerald Lyman, a former college professor, and Virgil Blessing, Bo's friend and mentor.

Lyman will be portrayed by Ed Craig of Pass Christian, an active member of both the Waveland Players and the Pass Christian Yacht Club theatre group. Craig's recent acting credits include roles in "Elementary, My Dear," "Last of the Red Hot Lovers" and "Barefoot in the Park" in Pass Christian, and in "Alaska" for the Waveland Players.

Virgil will be played by Bobby Cotte of Waveland. "Bus Stop" marks Cotte's first involvement in any aspect of community theatre, but he said he has always had a "secret yen" to try acting. Cotte will be joined in his stage debut by his daughter Jennifer, senior at Bay High School, who will play Elma Duckworth, a waitress at the cafe.

Thomas Worrell of Waveland, a familiar to Waveland Players' audiences from his prior appearances in "Deadwood Dick," "Alaska," "The Murder Room" and "Crimes of the Heart," will play Sheriff Will Masters in "Bus Stop."

Rounding out the cast are Dick and Nan Ehrbright as Carl, the bus driver, and Grace, owner of the diner.

Dick Ehrbright worked with community theatre groups in Jackson, Wyo., and Hammond and Bogalusa, La., before moving to Waveland. His acting credits include roles in "The Sound of Music," "Desperado," "Revival" and "Arsenic and Old Lace," as well as "The Murder Room" for Waveland Players and "The Odd Couple" for Bay St. Louis Little Theatre.

Hart convincingly plays Gloria, the "beautiful front" for a pair of con artists including King and Ricky Thorp.

Hart first appeared at Diamondhead Little Theatre in pajama Tops but has also participated in Waveland Players' productions of Deadwood Dick, Guys and Dolls and Dracula.

Thorpe portrays Bradford, the deadliest and most desperate of the villainous three seeking their fortunes by killing Opal and collecting insurance.

Although his first acting role for little theater, King's stage experience started in high school, continued through college, and several performances of the Gridiron Show in New Orleans.

The audience reveled in the change from the bungling but nasty con-artist to a domesticated nice guy, well-played by Mistretta as Sol.

Currid, who portrays Opal the junk-lady with a little red wagon, captured the hearts of the audience as the woman who believes hot tea is the cure for everything and refuses to hear ill of her friends.

Among Currid's numerous play credits are Diamondhead productions of Never Too Late and Here Lies Jeremy Troy.

Also appearing in Everybody Loves Opal is Shawn Acker, a junior at St. Stanislaus, as the do-good policeman.

Rounding out the cast is the 14-year-old feline, Kitty Knodle in the role of Mr. Tanner, Opal's cat.

Barbara Dickerson directed the three-act comedy. Included among her credits as director is the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre production of Cat On A Hot Tin Roof.

She has also appeared on several television stations and radio.

Giving the typical dumb blonde stereotype a new twist by coming up with a plot to kill Opal, Elisabeth

Finish 8-2 for season

Hawks fall to Warriors

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The Hawks of Hancock North Central fell to a seasoned d'Iberville eleven in a bid for a District 4-A title in d'Iberville Friday.

It was the third consecutive district championship win for d'Iberville.

Hawk running back Charles Burton electrified Hancock supporters with a 79-yard gallop for a score in the second quarter to bring the score to 14-6 in favor of d'Iberville.

Burton topped the 1,000 yard mark in rushing for Hancock this season.

Hancock Head Coach Irvin Favre said, "Burton is the first Hawk running back to top 1000 yards in a season since Lydell Curry did it, and he is now playing for Mississippi State."

"In the game against d'Iberville we played hard. They just did a super job blocking us and played really good defense," Favre commented.

Favre continued, "We tried everything offensively, running and throwing, but we could never get anything going for us consistently against their defense."

Hancock's defensive unit contained d'Iberville, with the secondary making most of the tackles, and hung tight in the game until the fourth quarter when the Warriors scored their third touchdown, giving them a 21-6 edge.

D'Iberville, 8-2 for the season, lost only to Harrison Central, a 5-A team, and 5-A District winner Picayune.

Harrison Central has accepted an invitation to play in the Shrimp Bowl in Biloxi.

An invitation was made to Hancock to play in the Shrimp Bowl and was turned down by the team, Favre said.

"Harrison Central only lost twice this season, to Picayune and Moss Point, and both are District 5-A champs," Favre added.

The coach continued, "We were invited to the Shrimp Bowl a couple weeks ago, and the coaching staff kept it to ourselves, then we were called yesterday and said yes if the players wanted it too."

Team members made the decision not to accept the invitation, as they felt we had a very good season and Harrison Central would be a little too much," Favre commented.

The 1986 Hawks ended the season with an 8-2 record.

"This is the same group of players who as sophomores compiled a 4-6 record, juniors a 6-4 finish, and 8-2 as seniors," Favre stated.

Favre offered praises for departing seniors Burton, Brett Favre, Donald Anderson, Mario Greco, Norris Chaisson, Frank Miller, Jesse Dupree and Delano Lewis.

"We just couldn't stop d'Iberville's trap plays; they trapped up the middle all night. We knew it was coming and worked on it, but we still couldn't stop it."

D'Iberville took the opening kickoff and marched in for a score in five plays covering 77 yards.

Hancock moved the ball after d'Iberville's score, only to be stopped on a pass interception by James Griffin, who ended up with two interceptions for the winners.

The rest of the first quarter was back and forth with one Warner drive being stopped by a fumble recovery by Rene Chaisson.

Brett Favre took the ball from a Warrior stopping a d'Iberville drive which led to Burton's score. A pitch back and pass for a two-point conversion failed.

In third quarter action, d'Iberville fumbled twice and Hancock fumbled once in only a few plays.

One recovery was made by Duane Acker and the other by Brian Meyers of the Hawks.

Hancock had six turnovers, four pass interceptions and two fumbles lost, while d'Iberville lost four fumbles.

Hancock moved for seven first downs and d'Iberville had 18.

D'Iberville rushed for 347 yards to Hancock's 104, taking the passing edge to 59-52 yards.

Favre wanted to express a sincere appreciation to the Hawk fans this season adding, "We had the best fan support in the school's history, and appeared to have almost as many supporters as d'Iberville had Friday night."

TOO MANY WARRIORS—Hancock North Central ball carriers had tough going in action Friday night against a seasoned d'Iberville defensive unit. Bay shuts out SSC 52-0 to finish 1986 season

By DENA BISNETTE

In a 52-0 shut-out Friday over the St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws, the Bay St. Louis High School Tigers increased their 1986 winning streak to eight games and ended their regular season with an 8-1 record.

Bay High wasted no time Friday, scoring on their first drive. Runs by Brian Laneaux and Aaron Whavers set up Bay High on the Rock-a-chaws' four yard line.

The Tigers then handed off to Laneaux, who pushed through the Stanislaus line for six points with 7:44 to go in the first quarter.

Bay High shifted back to Aaron Whavers for a two-point conversion on a run, posting an 8-0 lead.

The Rock-a-chaws' first drive ended on a fumble.

"We had a lot of great effort but we made some mistakes."

He credited Shabazz for "an excellent game," and commended Gino Ascani, Blake Boudreux, David Diboll and Jose Lau for their performance on defense.

"I also appreciate the fan support we have received all year. It does not go unnoticed by the players and staff," Powell added.

Bay High Head Coach Cleveland Williams said he was pleased with his team's performance.

"I thought the boys played real good team ball. On offense we had some good drives and we were able begin at 7 p.m.

St. Stanislaus finished the season with a 1-8 record, with the Rock-a-chaws' only victory being against East Central.

"We really appreciate the effort the seniors gave us tonight," Stanislaus Head Coach Vernon Powell said after the game.

"We have worked hard throughout the year, and we are young so we will come back," he added, explaining that many of this year's players have been sophomores and freshmen.

"We had a lot of great effort but we made some mistakes."

He credited Shabazz for "an excellent game," and commended Gino Ascani, Blake Boudreux, David Diboll and Jose Lau for their performance on defense.

"I also appreciate the fan support we have received all year. It does not go unnoticed by the players and staff," Powell added.

Bay High Head Coach Cleveland Williams said he was pleased with his team's performance.

"I thought the boys played real good team ball. On offense we had some good drives and we were able to throw the ball a little bit more," Williams said.

"There were a lot of things we couldn't do Friday night," he added. "We couldn't kick because Brian Laneaux had been injured in the Hancock game. We also had two offensive linemen with the flu."

"We had four boys sick last night who couldn't perform the way they really wanted to."

The high score of the game gave many of Bay High's younger players a chance to get into the game.

"We had the opportunity to play a lot of boys on offense and we made some changes on defense in the fourth quarter," Williams said.

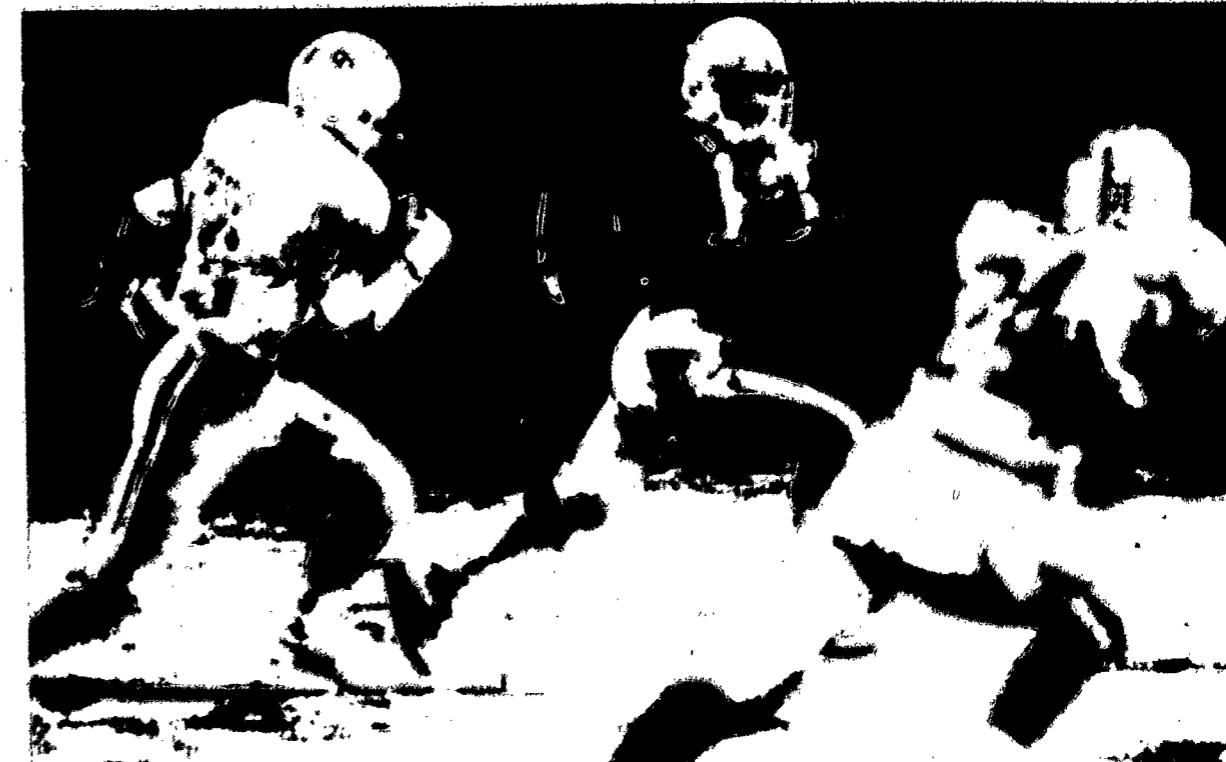

"This really helped us save a lot of boys for the bowl game against St. John."

Williams commented that he expects the Rock-a-chaws to be a more formidable opponent in the future.

"I know St. Stanislaus is going through a rebuilding stage, and you make quite a few mistakes when you're rebuilding. Stanislaus will be losing only four or five men and will have mostly sophomores and juniors next year," the coach commented.

Wastewater district obtains $400,000 loan

By DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District has obtained a $400,000 interest-free state loan.

The loan will be administered by the State Bureau of Pollution Control through the State Tax Commission, District Administrator Ethel Schott said.

The loan will be added to a $4.5 million U.S. Environmental Protection Agency grant and local funds to finance improvements to the Waveland wastewater treatment plant.

The improvements are part of Segment III of a four-part project that will eventually link the Waveland and Bay St. Louis sewerage collection facilities and provide a higher level of wastewater treatment than is presently available.

The project will also extend sewerage to four county subdivisions.

Schott said the district is actually eligible for 12.5 percent of the anticipated Segment III cost through the interest-free loan program, but added that the amount is actually less than the 12.5 percent because the state imposes a $400,000 cap on the loans.

The Environmental Protection Agency grant will cover 75 percent of the anticipated cost. The remainder will come from local funds, she added.

Bearcat win over Pirates is Taylor-made

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

Long Beach's sensational 215-pound, six-foot-three senior tailback Robert Taylor was thrown for a one-yard loss on his initial carry in the Bearcats' first series against Pass Christian Friday night at Pirate Stadium.

And Long Beach had to punt away on fourth down from their own 20.

The Pirates' opening drive was halted after seven plays when Bearcat defensive back Chris Woodward picked up a fumble to kill a Pirate first down near the Long Beach ten.

Taylor got a second try at running against the Pirates and managed only a skimpy two yard gain.

But after that it was 'Katie, Bar The Door' 'cause here he comes again!

Before the contest was over, Taylor had carried some 30 times for more than 200 yards, including a 30-yard run after snagging a Bernie Parker pass to close out the first half.

Taylor clearly made the difference between the two teams as he led the Bearcats to a 20-12 season closeout victory over the Pirates.

Taylor scored twice in the second period on runs of 20 and 24 yards, and again two-thirds of the way through the final quarter on a three-yard plunge.

Bearcat place kicker Jeff Bringle completed one-point conversions after Taylor's first and third touchdowns to push the Long Beach scoring to 20.

Pass Christian's stellar backfield artist Shimall Conway nudged the 100-yard mark on some 20 carries, in addition to pass completions for another 30 yards.

Conway was responsible for the Pass' first touchdown with a six yard scoring run a little more than two minutes into the game.

Lizana added a 30-yard run after the completion for the additional six points which gave the Pirates a breath of life in the closing moments of the game with Long Beach ahead 20-12.

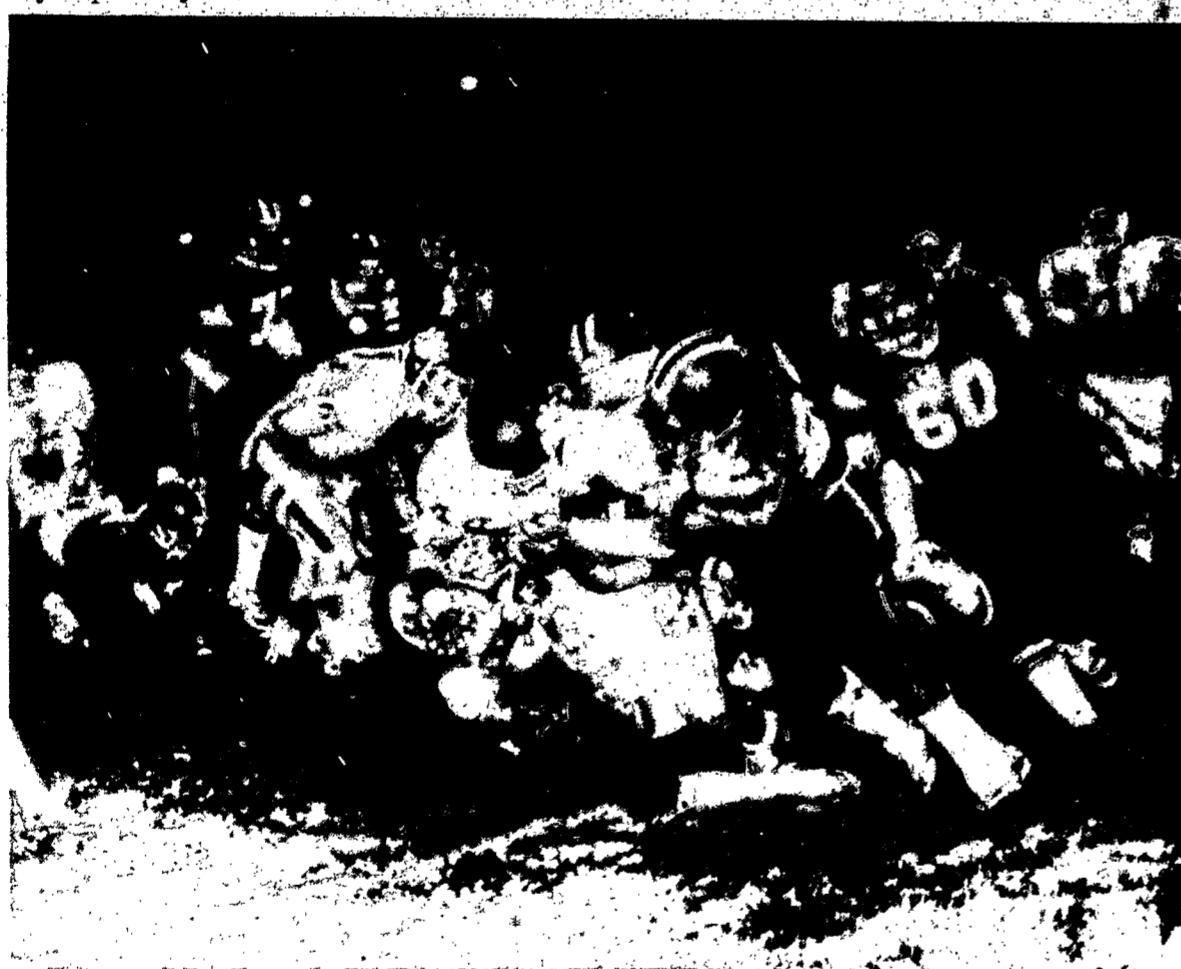

Pass Quarterback Shawn Ausmer returned the kickoff to his own 30 and the Pirates drove to mid-field before relinquishing a costly fumble.

Taylor drove in five carries for the second Long Beach touchdown with assists of two and ten yard runs by Fullback Tellis Saucier.

Bringle's kick at that point failed, setting the first half score at 13-6.

Halftime activities at Pirate Stadium included crowning of queen Hope Bonney, a Pass High senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bonney.

She was escorted during the ceremonies by her father.

Waveland to answer Murtagh's letter with view on tax collection

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Board of Aldermen has decided to formally answer a letter from Hancock County Tax Assessor and Collector Edward Murtagh.

Murtagh had written a letter to the editor of the Sea Coast Echo in reaction to the board's request that Waveland City Hall be made a tax collection substation for the county.

The letter was published Oct. 30, about a week after the board authorized its attorney, Lucien Gex, to draft a letter stating the request.

The board voted Tuesday to authorize Gex to draft a letter to Murtagh explaining the city's views on a tax collection substation.

Murtagh's letter explained how the tax office functions, particularly with regard to collection of taxes for the City of Bay St. Louis.

Murtagh also stated that the county presently assists Waveland, although the city still collects its own taxes and has not yet turned its tax collection functions over to the county as Bay St. Louis has.

According to Murtagh, the inter-local agreement that the county has with Bay St. Louis allows taxpayers to pay all their taxes in one location, the Hancock County Courthouse Annex, or to pay by mail.

As a fee for the service, the county charges the city two percent of the ad valorem taxes collected.

The county furnishes land rolls, tax receipts, taxpayers' notices and delinquent tax notices and conducts the cities annual tax sales.

Murtagh said the county is currently assisting Waveland by printing land rolls, tax receipts and tax notices for the city at no charge.

"We feel that Hancock County has entered the 21st century as far as assessing and tax collecting are concerned," Murtagh's letter stated.

"Hancock County has become a leader in this endeavor and our efforts have been recognized throughout the state. To deviate from our program would only deter and impair the program and would be a step backward," the letter continued.

The proposal submitted to the aldermen by Mayor John Longo Jr. called for city hall to be designated not only as a city collection office as it is now, but as a satellite county collection office serving residents of nearby communities in addition to city residents.

Longo had proposed that the county be charged a percentage for the service under an agreement similar to the inter-local agreement between the county and Bay St. Louis.

weeks in order to allow time to secure uniforms, the coach noted.

Boys and girls who will be five by Dec. 31 are eligible, according to Coach Waddy LeBourgeois of Waveland.

Clubs, Auxiliaries

American Legion Auxiliary 139 Crafty Homemakers Extension Club

The American Legion Auxiliary 139 and The Crafty Homemakers Extension Club co-sponsors of a Hotel Reed Nursing and Retirement Home entertainment program held their monthly "Sing-a-Long" on Nov. 6.

The entertainment was provided by Mrs. Lena Mae Oustalet of Pass Christian on the piano while Mrs. Roslyn Weathers of Bay St. Louis led the singing.

Mmes Evelyn Burns and Oris Planchard encouraged the residents to join in the singing and hand-clapping. Refreshments were served.

Diamondhead Community Art Association

A small, but interesting meeting of Diamondhead's newly formed Community Art Association was held on Monday at the Community Center at Diamondhead.

Those attending the meeting were Willie Solomon, Sandi Smith, Maryellen Turcott, Charlotte Reshew, Neal Hall, Ida Tolbert, Evelyn Kibler and Jeanine Longanecker.

Each artist brought a piece of their art and/or craft to show. The work included oil landscapes and portraits, pen and ink drawings, handmade paper and limited edition prints, cloisonne enameling work, tole painting and sewing crafts.

The next meeting will be held at the Community Center on Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 1 p.m. For this meeting, foreign born residents of Diamondhead will present a program on Christmas decorations and customs of their different countries. Members of the Association will show some of their original hand-made decorations. Future meetings will feature workshops in different art techniques and mediums.

Persons interested in joining the association or who would like to attend the meetings are welcome. For more information call Charlotte Reshew, 255-1747.

Garden Isle Community Association

The Garden Isle Community Association staged its first Halloween dance and the event was a tremendous success.

Music by Ray and Wanda brought back a lot of memories for guests and members alike from the 50's and 60's.

East Hancock Volunteer Fire Dept. was the site of the gala.

Decorations were by Francis and Bill Aleckien and Shirley Schubel. Many donated and food and refreshments were served.

Many Spanish cooks favor the use of olive oil in soups or stews, as they feel it gives a "meatier" flavor; in fact, olive oil is the essence of Spanish cuisine, used not only in meat dishes, but also in seafood, vegetable and, of course, salad dishes.

Spanish cooks often garnish their stews with olives or slices of hard-cooked eggs, for they believe, as most good cooks do, that a dish must appeal to the eye as well as to the taste.

A hearty, filling "stretchable" stew is the answer to many family meals, for it can simmer a long time without losing its flavor, and tastes even better when reheated for the second go-round. Here's:

SPANISH STEW
2½ to 3 lbs. beef, cut in chunks
¼ cup olive oil

3 green onions, chopped
1 garlic clove, crushed

1 can (16 oz) peeled tomatoes, with liquid
½ cup dry red wine
1 cup beef stock (or bouillon or water)

1 pkg. frozen cut green beans
3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced

Drain the tomatoes, reserving the liquid.

Brown the meat in hot olive oil, push it to the side of the pot, and saute the onions. Add the tomatoes, garlic and wine, and simmer for five minutes or so, then add the stock, tomato liquid and dashes of pepper and salt and Tabasco to your taste.

Bring almost to a boil, cover, then lower the fire and simmer until the meat is tender, for an hour or a bit more if needed—just steal a bit of meat from the pot and test for tenderness.

Add the beans, along with small white potatoes, if you wish, and cook for another 20 minutes or so. When serving over rice, top with egg slices, and add artichoke hearts if you wish.

My father always insisted that at least a few pieces of beef-with-bone be added for extra flavor. You may substitute lamb cubes for the beef, or chicken pieces if you wish.

And, if you're a super-scrimmer such as I, instead of buying the more expensive cubes of stew, you'll buy a chuck roast, and cut your stew meat from the less tender part, reserving the remainder for a pot roast.

REAL VIEWS ON REAL ESTATE

Dr. Dennis Tosh is holder of the J. Ed Turner Chair of Real Estate at The University of Mississippi

By Dr. Dennis Tosh

FOREIGN DOLLARS
PLAY IMPORTANT ROLE
Question: How important are foreign dollars invested in the United States in terms of lowering the cost of borrowing money to purchase real estate? How much investment is taking place? H.J., McComb.

Answer: Dear H.J.:

Foreign dollars invested in the United States continue to play an increasingly important role in the American real estate market, including the residential component of the market. Estimates are that the amount of foreign dollars invested in real estate and real estate mortgages in this country will continue to increase.

U.S. corporations began tapping into the international capital market because the huge federal budget deficit had created capital shortages at home. Corporate borrowers needed a new source of capital to fill the gap between the amount of money demanded and the available supply.

According to U.S. government statistics, corporations increased their overseas securities offerings between 1978 and 1984 from $1.4 billion to $24 billion. U.S. securities attract foreign investors because their economic yields generally are higher than capital instruments found abroad, and the stability of the U.S. government minimizes political risk to the investors.

In the U.S. housing market, foreign investors are playing a more important role by increasing the available pool of mortgage credit. Increased foreign investment also has kept interest rates lower than they otherwise would be by reducing the competition for capital. Some economists estimate that large inflows of foreign capital have kept interest rates approximately 2 percentage points lower than they otherwise would have been.

"A Grateful Nation Remembers" is theme for 1986 Veterans Day

"A Grateful Nation Remembers" is the theme for the 1986 Veterans Day observance which will be Tuesday.

Jackson VA Regional Office Director Samuel J. Maraman said that "while the Veterans Administration is the means by which all Americans are able to express the spirit of Veterans Day year round, it is on this special day what we can all gather to voice our gratitude."

The observance of Veterans Day goes back to 1921 when an American soldier—"his name known but to God"—was buried in Arlington National Cemetery. The burial site of this unknown World War I soldier became the personification of dignity and reverence for American veterans. Similar ceremonies occurred earlier in England and France.

These memorial gestures all took place on November 11, giving universal recognition to the celebrated ending of World War I hostilities at 11 a.m., November 11, 1918—the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. That day became known as "Armistice Day."

If the idealistic hope had been realized, that World War I was "the war to end all wars," Nov. 11 might still be called Armistice Day—but shortly after the holiday was proclaimed, World War II broke out in Europe and shattered that dream.

More than 16 million Americans served during World War II and more than 400,000 died in service during that period. The families and friends longed for a way to honor their memory—to honor veterans of all wars.

Legislation was introduced and in 1954 President Eisenhower signed the bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day, and he called for Americans everywhere to rededicate themselves to the cause of peace.

Additional significance was added to Veterans Day in 1958 when two more unidentified war dead—one from World War II and the other from the Korean Conflict—were brought to Arlington National Cemetery from overseas and buried beside the World War I soldier.

On Memorial Day 1984, an unidentified American War dead from the Vietnam War was interred alongside the other unidentified dead at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Maraman urged Americans to pay tribute to the nearly 28 million living veterans who have served their country in uniform and to the more than one million who died during wartime service.

For further assistance and information veterans and widows may contact the Jackson VA Regional Office between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The statewide toll-free number is 1-800-532-5270. If you live in the Meridian area, call 693-6166; in the Gulfport/Biloxi area call 432-5996. The number in the Jackson area is 965-4873.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: Recent bad weather has caused some damage to the property I am renting. So far, my landlord has not begun repairs. I assume he must repair my property. Am I right or is there a loophole somewhere?

A: In Mississippi the landlord has a duty to repair rental property in particular circumstances. If he has already agreed to begin repairs then he has a duty to do so.

In addition, a landlord must repair any "common areas" used by all tenants, such as halls, stairways and lobbies.

If you have not asked your landlord to begin repairs do so at once. Also, review your lease and see what it may say about the matter of repairs.

By the way, a lease may contain a provision which states that the landlord is not liable for any injuries caused to a tenant, his family or his guest by the landlord's failure to repair the leased property. Such a clause is not effective if the property is being leased for residential purposes. A landlord cannot avoid his liability in this manner.

Q: Can a landlord raise my rent whenever he wants? There's talk about raising my rent and I can't afford it.

A: As is often the case when trying to answer a question about the law, we answer you generally that "it depends." In this instance, it depends on the type of agreement you have with your landlord.

In a month-to-month tenancy, stability in the amount of rent may exist only on a monthly basis. If this is the arrangement you have then your landlord may raise the rent next month.

In a year's lease, the landlord cannot raise the rent for a 12-month term. Of course, there are exceptions.

If the landlord wants to raise the rent during the lease period, he or she must give the tenant something in return, like a new contract. You have some negotiating power when this happens.

For further assistance and information veterans and widows may contact the Jackson VA Regional Office between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The statewide toll-free number is 1-800-532-5270. If you live in the Meridian area, call 693-6166; in the Gulfport/Biloxi area call 432-5996. The number in the Jackson area is 965-4873.

LISTED BELOW ARE THIS WEEK'S SPECIALS AT THE NEW DELCHAMPS.

You guessed it. Nothing. The New Delchamps doesn't have weekly specials. Instead, we have Everyday Minimum Pricing. Pricing that's absolutely lower on every item. Every day.

You see, in the long run, weekly specials don't really save you money. Because when a supermarket has specials, they have to keep the prices higher on everything that's not a special. So the money you thought you saved on the weekly special is lost on everything else.

The New Delchamps has eliminated these specials to bring you

EVERYDAY MINIMUM PRICING ABSOLUTELY LOWER PRICING!

S.M.

And when you see what you'll save on your total food bill, you'll be glad to see your last special.
